SUSQUEHANNOCK

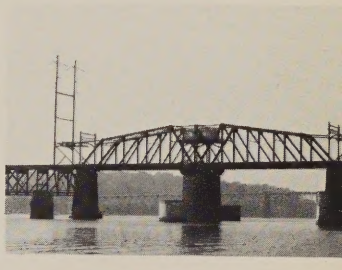
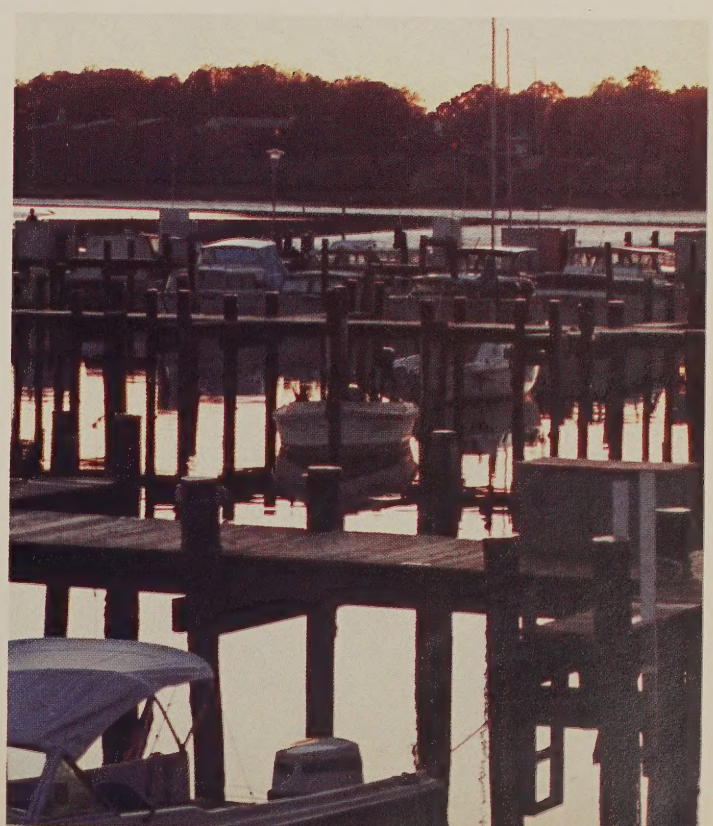
I'm sailing away.
Set an open course for the virgin sea,
because I've got to be free,
Free to face the life that's ahead of me.





1983 DEDICATION

This year's 1983 Susquehannock is dedicated to Mr. Donald Osman, better known as "Ozzie Bear," a teacher well-liked by his co-workers and greatly appreciated by this year's seniors. Mr. Osman has taught English at H. H. S. for ten years. He has been an enthusiastic coach of the Girl's Softball team as well as the dedicated coach of our school's drama productions.

Mr. Osman's advice to his students is: "Believe in yourself and you can accomplish anything." By dedicating this yearbook to Mr. Osman, the seniors say "Thank You" to a good teacher and trusted friend.

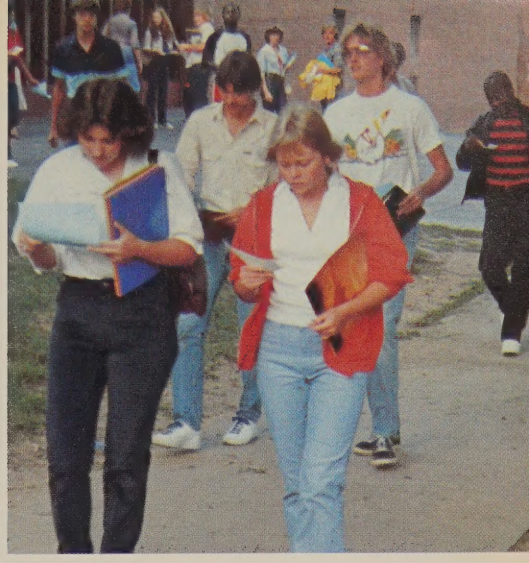
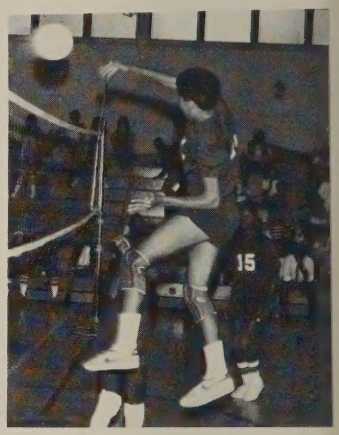
As students, we look to the future and set goals for ourselves. In order to reach our goals we must be willing to change, learn, and grow. We must discover ourselves and our world not only by moving with the tide, but also by "sailing into the wind" and taking chances. "Come Sail Away," the theme of the 1983 Susquehannock, represents our constant exploring and moving toward the future. It symbolizes the discoveries we make about ourselves and others; it shows the storms we encounter. Living in this town at the mouth of the Chesapeake Bay, it seems fitting for us to "Come Sail Away."

On September 7, 1982, Havre de Grace High School opened its many doors once again. Some thought it was a day of confusion since the renovations were very much in progress. Even the seniors had a bit of trouble finding classrooms—not to mention all the worries the freshmen had! If it had not been for the blue sheets handed out showing the location of rooms in St. Patrick's, the portables, and the cafeteria building, everyone would have been in the dark. The most common sight before first period was friends comparing schedules, making sure they knew where to be.



By the end of the week, everyone was into the routine again. The excuse, "I couldn't find the room," was wearing thin. Through the patience of both the students and faculty, opening day ran smoothly. Witness all the smiling faces!

STUDENT LIFE



A gathering of angels
Appeared to my surprise
We climbed aboard their starship
And headed for the skies.

TREE OF LIFE

Havre de Grace High School held its annual Homecoming dance, "If Time Could Stand Still," on Saturday, [illegible] celebrating a victory over [illegible] Harford. The Homecoming court was announced [illegible] through the dance. The [illegible] consisted of Christa [illegible] escorted by Kevin Henry, [illegible] Foley escorted by Tony Steelman, Linda Gordon escorted by Mike Watters, Vicki [illegible] escorted [illegible]

If Time Could

Carl Logan, and Stephanie Vaughn escorted by Novelle Jackson. Judy Holloway, who was escorted by Tommy Gorham, was elected the 1982 Homecoming Queen. Novelle Jackson was chosen the Most Valuable Player for his performance in Friday night's game. The Spirit Club sponsored the dance with professional entertainment by Music Express.

Stand Still

Contentment

I sit on the beach like a solitary object.
It's so dreary, gray, dismal.
Alone a seagull flies up above.
The surf smacks against the rocks,
One by one, a symphony.
The spray shatters on each like broken glass.
My thoughts are so varied, specific, cautious.
The sand is so cold.
Just alone I stand, so content with my surroundings.
Life so alone, so complex and so perfect.

Daddy

When I was young, I always thought that I had to live up to Daddy. Trying hard to be the perfect daughter, to fulfill his expectations. But now, as I grow older, I realize how hard Daddy is trying to be the perfect father and fulfill my expectations—If only we could meet each other . . . halfway.

Why did little boys grow up to be soldiers and march off to war
some never to return?
Why must mommy's pride and joy
march off to play soldier where only death . . . is the winner?
Why did they trade the footballs and basketballs for machine guns and hand grenades?
When they have their class reunion next year,
how many of their heroes will be there in one piece?

Just when I thought
I could survive without
You—
You walk back into my life.
Things weren't going right,
You showed up
and made them better.

What made you come?
I'd like to think that you missed me, too.

But No—Reality is
Your Life Mine.
There is no connection.
and I should not imagine one.

Graduation Day

Graduation day
is a time to remember It's a time to look back on on all your years.
It's a time of joy,
fulfilled with tears.

Tomorrow is like birth,
a new beginning, a fresh start.
All the discouragements aren't worth the fret,
When tomorrow will always be better yet.
So look ahead with an open mind
Leave the disappointments far behind
Aim for a goal
It's not hard to do
Your happiness depends only on you.

Angel of Rapture

A lady walks into my light
Sweet breeze blows through her hair
And as I wait within the sand
An aura fills the air.

So I watch without a trace of sound
Full moon dances on her skin
My once-close thoughts of mortal life
Are slowly growing thin.

As I gaze in stricken state
She reaches out to me
And takes my hand, my heart and soul
With her to ecstasy.

Through warm night skies we levitate—
A smile spreads through my veins
Though never speaking a single word
She seductively explains.

Perpetual life and abundance of love
Are now bestowed on me
So I reach down and wave goodbye
To all my misery.

Today

I think that today
I will be my own person
—just me and my intuition.
I think that today
I will do what I feel me
—being me.
I think that for just one day
I will not play follow the leader
—I'll do it first thing
tomorrow!

Words put to paper stay on undeniable.
Perhaps when read later
they're wrong,
almost laughable.
Writing for others
to read takes bravery.

Seniors . . .

full of life, energy, spirit striving for a purpose . . .
leaving the past behind . . .
reaching toward the future
always in motion . . .
trying to find a place . . .
looking out for ourselves
. . . because we are the

. . . Future

Distant Days

Childhood rather like a photo album . . .
series of Kodak color memories
sprinkled with a few better forgotten
black and white shots.

Small but forceful is the small sandpiper fighting the giant wave.

You were all to me—for me
Looking into your eyes
I felt so close to you.
We've lost that now
Always drifting
near and far.
Are your feelings the same?
I've often wondered as we've locked stares and shared one life for one second.
Writing is my only escape and even then I don't get far before I am barricaded again by the guards of my inner feelings
who will not allow you to know.
Someday we will share
all that we are—all that we can be.
My only worry is that it will not be with each other.

A moment can be captured on a piece of film.
Memories can be piled up in boxes and books
But feelings cannot be created or uncreated
They are permanent.
Memories can be forgotten and thrown away
But someone's feelings are never forgotten
They live in your mind and soul forever.

Panic

All my life I awaited this year
But as it approaches I begin to fear
I fear the end of my high school days
As I look back, it all is a haze.
It all went too fast—
Why can't it last?
Memories—some happy, some sad
It's time to get my mind in gear
But how in the world will I survive this year?

Your gentle ways
Your loving touch
Will always mean so very much.
For all the special things
you do I'll always be in love with you.

Your mother's a survivor
She'll do what must be done
Her children will revive her
And help her see the sun.
She almost knew that unison
But the singing stopped too soon
Now she shares the silence
With a man up in the moon.

Your brothers are all older
And they'll take it in their stride
The world's a little colder
But manhood's on their side.
Now you're the little girl-child
And you look so much like him
And he's right there inside
you
Each time you want to sing.

Homecoming 1982

The Warriors played an exciting Homecoming game defeating North Harford, 42-14. At halftime Judy Holloway, the 1982 Homecoming Queen was introduced and crowned by last year's queen, Jennifer Epps. Senior members of the Court were Terri Foley, Linda Gordon, Christa McIntyre, Violet Scarborough, and Stephanie Vaughn.

Havre de Grace is a special place to live because it is where the river merges into the bay. Living on the edge of the water, we participate in many water activities such as sailing, water skiing, windsurfing, ice skating, fishing, and swimming. Many forms of wildlife can be seen here such as seagulls, sandpipers, ducks, and many other kinds of waterfowl. Decoy carving has grown to be one of the local pasttimes in our town. Whether the water serves as an important part of our lives or just as beautiful place for us to live, Havre de Grace is unique.

I look to the sea,
Reflections in the waves spark my memory.
Some happy, some sad,
I think of childhood friends and the dreams we had.

We Are Underclassmen But . . . We're Proud of It.

I know you don't know us, but we're juniors, sophomores, and freshmen.
To the seniors we're nothing but Underclassmen.

If you don't know what an Underclassman is It's described exactly the way it sounds
We, men/women of class, come from the land down under
And seniors step on us like baseball mounds.

You know what's totally awesome
And depresses us every day.
To know that we're taking Chemistry and Calculus,
And seniors are taking phys. ed. almost four times a day.

But don't get us wrong, we're not complaining
To be Underclassmen, we really don't hate.
It's just the thought of having two or three years
Of work, work, work and to be a senior we have to wait.

There are a few things about seniors
That really take some bites
Like the everlasting, ever popular Saga of Senior Rights.

It's like being on a boat
All classes going on a field trip
The boat springs a leak, the seniors jump
And Underclassmen go down with the ship.

And when it comes to vandalizing
Seniors act like they're seven or eight
But we Underclassmen know where we're going
And we got our heads on straight.

—Jeff Siperly

AT ANCHOR WITH ACADEMICS

SING OUT A YO-HO-HO!

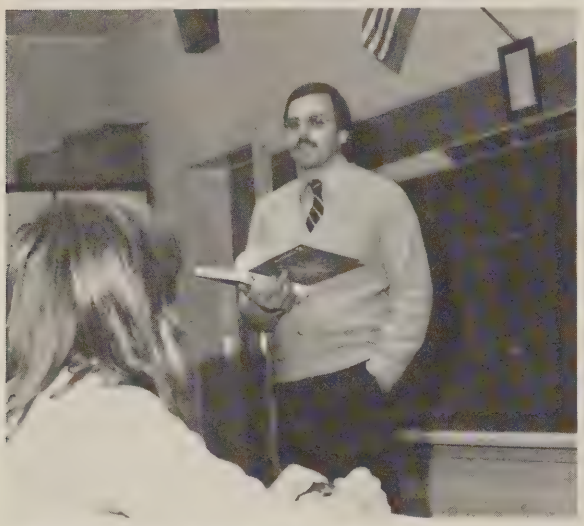
Mr. Perry Castelli, HHS choral director, once again oversaw one of the largest active groups in the school. The Concert Chorus membered approximately 95 students and continued to give outstanding musical performances. An outgrowth of the chorus activities for the second year was the Show Choir which allowed the students to create and coordinate music, dance and song.

The 1982-83 Senior High School Band conducted by Ben Seidel is a small but active group of talented members. The band plays for other schools around the county and the home football games. They once again hosted the all-county Band Festival. They also supplied the music for the year's production, "Oliver." Mr. Seidel hopes for a bigger turn out next year.

AND THE BEAT GOES ON

(TOTAL)LY AWESOME!

The General Math class used the demonstrative method of teaching/learning this year while the Geometry classes used the discovery method. All Geometry, Basic Algebra and Calculus classes received new books this year. Two new teachers, Ms. Debbie Noha and Mr. William Ekey, joined the math department this year. Ms. Noha was a first-year teacher coming from Fairleigh Dickinson University. Mr. Ekey was an eleven-year veteran transferred from Edgewood High School. Mr. Bowman's logic puzzles created and maintained students interests throughout the year. Ms. Eileen Turowski served as Math Department chairman.



WRITE ON

Composition was emphasized strongly in all levels of English classes this year with students participating in structured writing assignments and much peer proofreading. Many times, student composition was based on class readings, such as: To Kill a Mockingbird, Animal Farm, A Separate Peace, I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings, Catcher in the Rye, Huckleberry Finn, Romeo and Juliet, and Hamlet. Field trips were taken to Enoch Pratt Library and College of Notre Dame. The one new addition to the English department was Ms. Susan Chalk who transferred from Edgewood and taught tenth and eleventh grade students. Besides the regular grade level courses, optional English classes included General Literature, Composition, Mystery/Science Fiction/ Folklore, Advanced Writing, and Mythology/ Symbolism.

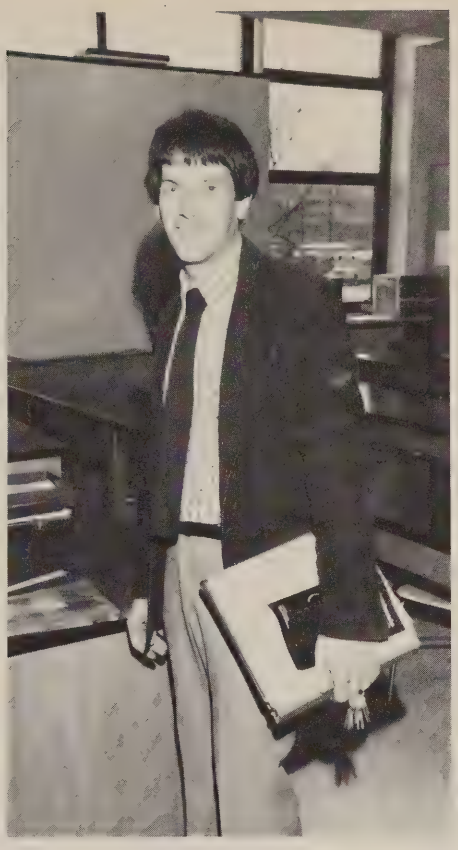
PAINTING THE TOWN RED

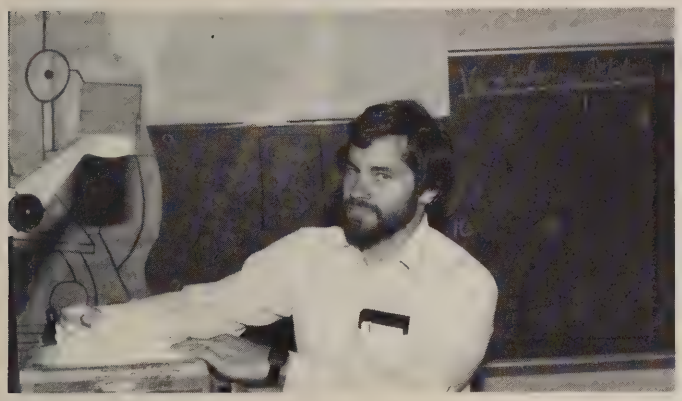
Art teacher Mr. Henry Shuler taught two ceramic classes, three crafts classes, two basic art classes, one common arts class and Studio I and II this year. Mr. Shuler is shown here demonstrating proper drawing technique and with Jeff Rowe discussing the correct use of pen and ink in art.

CREATIVE SEWING AND COOKING

Jo Ellen Schrock taught three gourmet food classes, four creative cookery classes and a food specialties class along with Family and Marriage and Education for parenthood. All of these classes are popular with HHS students. Dr. Rosemary Williams taught three fun sewing classes, one sewing specialties class, four child care classes, one independent living class and a housing class.

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT





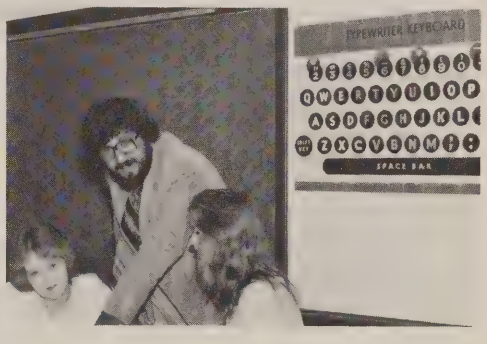
Once again HHS students learned about cells, flora, fauna, gases, mixtures, liquid, properties, elements and so forth from the dedicated "Scientists" at HHS, Mr. Stu Chapman, Mr. Doug Mory, Mr. Tom Trafton, Ms. Beth Triplett (shown here with ancient friend's remains), and Ms. Pat Stoeri. Activities included the yearly pig dissection in Biology, going on trips around the campus collecting leaves, and trips to the Planetarium.

SAILING THE OCEAN WIDE

Social Studies teachers Mr. Jon Andes, Mrs. Janice Grant, Mrs. Pat Regan, Mr. Bob Rudolph, Mr. Mike Rupprecht, and Mr. Alex Spooner involved their students in activities relating to American Government, Contemporary Issues, Geography, U.S. History, as well as Ancient, European, and Modern World History. Backgrounds in different cultures, American government foundations, as well as current issues facing informed citizens, were the varied aspects of the Social Studies program. Field trips included visits to Washington, D. C. and a Social Science seminar at Towson State.

MINDING OUR BUSINESS!

Typing, taking shorthand, operating a variety of businss machines and knowing your debit from your credit are all important skills needed by students entering the business world after graduating. HHS students were ably assisted in learning these skills by Mr. Charles Ballance, Mrs. Evelyn Ballance and Mr. Richard Holly.



MAKIN' IT WORK (SOMEHOW)

Industrial Arts classes allowed students to involve themselves in activities which provided skills useful in later jobs. With teachers Mr. Cleek, Mr. Belcher, and Mr. Rogers students worked on lame cars, fashioned wood and metal products, and learned how to read blueprints.

"LET'S GET PHYSICAL

IN PHYS. ED."

Mr. Mike Ennis, Mr. Shawn Baker, Mr. Tyre Jay, Ms. Donna Weber, and Ms. Mary Odachowski are the physical education teachers this year, a rough job due to the reconstruction of the new school which has limited the space in which the students have to participate. Many things are offered in gym class. Students played lacrosse, soccer, basketball, tennis, and volleyball. The physical education teachers are looking forward to the new multi-purpose room to be finished in the spring which will allow more space and activities for the students.

IT'S ALL LATIN TO ME!

Spanish and French classes used the Audio-lingual method of teaching this year. Spanish I classes received new books this year, Espanol; A Descubrirlo. Language teachers Ms. Barb Newell and Ms. Barbara Sewell used a variety of techniques in their language teaching.

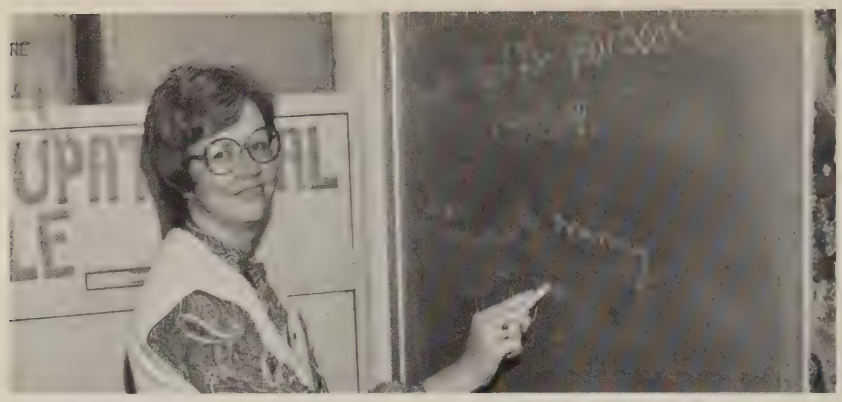
LEARNING THE TRADE

There were 30 students enrolled in the work experience program this year at HHS. This program, headed by Mr. Harris, provided a selected number of students with a halfday job and actual experience in the business community. Students must meet certain criteria to belong to the program—keep their grades at least average and attend school each morning.

THE LANDLUBBER'S BOAT

As is the case every year, Driver's Education was once again one of the most looked-forward to courses in a student's high school career. Not missing any in-class instruction, similators or road time so that one may reach that ultimate goal—the driver's license—was very important, and Mr. Randy Holly, Driver's Education teacher, scheduled and programmed all eligible students for needed instruction.

A BREAK FOR EXTRA HELP

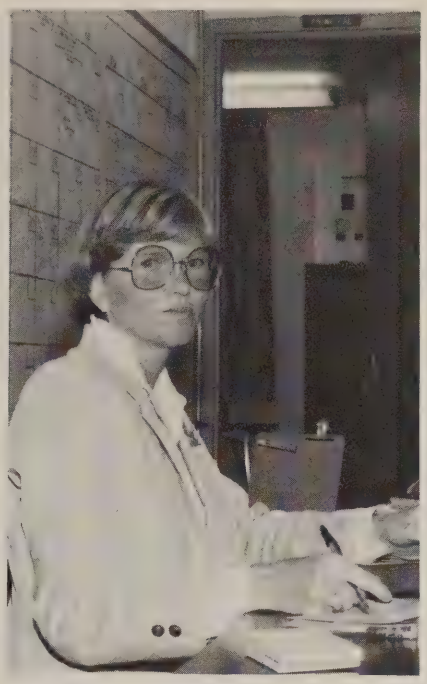


CURE FOR ALL

"What's this? You're not feeling well? Well, just to make sure, I'll send you to Mrs. Shaefer." That's right, Mrs. Shaefer is the school nurse who can treat anything from a minor cut to a heart operation. (Well, we wouldn't go quite that far!). In the morning you can catch her in the cafeteria writing passes for absent kids.

HILS Reading Lab, under the direction of Ms. Marty Elliot, continued to provide independent work on individual reading objectives for students needing extra help in the area of reading skills. Students also received extra instruction from Ms. Jackson, Ms. Milway, Ms. Ross, and Ms. Rovecamp.

THE CREW OF THE CAPTAIN'S QUARTERS



Ms. Edie Curry, (left) Office Manager, took charge of school accounts and dispensed supplies. Ms. Carol Sheets (above) carried out duties as Dr. Dubel's secretary. Ms. Carol Hall (right) our new attendance clerk, was a much needed asset.

SWABBIN' THE DECK

OUR GUIDING LIGHTS

Mrs. Grace Spry, Mrs. Betty Cattell, and Mrs. Betty Coakley were in charge of the Guidance Department this year. Mrs. Spry worked with the 9th and 11th grade students while Mrs. Cattell worked with the 10th and 12th grade students. Mrs. Coakley worked with all of the students. She was the secretary. Students had to see her before having conferences with either guidance counselor.

GETTING THE BOOKS STRAIGHT

Ms. Debbie Kinsler and Mrs. Gloria Anderson were our librarians this year. They have kept our Media Center in great order. A main project this year was reorganizing the card catalog and the audio-visual materials.

THE CAPTAINS

OF OUR SHIP

Dr. Thomas T. Dubel, Principal, Mr. William Taylor, Vice Principal, and Mr. William Hunter, Supervisor, have kept our school well in hand this year. These three men worked hard to keep our school in order. While Dr. Dubel was striving to make sure our school was being rebuilt properly, Mr. Taylor was making sure the students were acting properly. Mr. Hunter was the man who made sure the school curriculum was run properly.

The group then participated in a discussion tournament in which Attilio Framarini and Rich Hamilton scored 101 and 104 points, respectively, and placed 2nd and 3rd in the rounds. Later a smaller group traveled to York County to view a regional debate and then in the spring to Philadelphia to participate in the Speech Classic and the Student Congress. SUSQUEHANNOCK STAFF

The 1982-83 Susquehannock staff consists of many hard working students who have devoted their time to putting together this years yearbook. There were days when it seemed unlikely that anything would ever get done but the class always pulled together and contributed in order to meet deadlines.

Top scorer M. Hardin runs toward the goal posts. K. Clark rejoices after a successful goal attempt. Coach Spooner advises Tommy Gorham.

Injuries plagued our 1982 Varsity Soccer team and hampered performances of (Senior) Tony Steelman, Carl Logan, Jay Phillips, Tommy Gorham and Joey Farro. Coach Trafton, who was unable to shave his beard, expects a stronger team next year, losing only 4 players to graduation, including all-county player Joey Mitchell. (Sophomore) John Mazzei received county Honorable Mention.

There were 19 members on the J.V. Soccer team this year. Coach Shuler named Mike Sides and Nick Yuran as the best players. He also said, "The season went very well with the team playing many close games." His opinion was that the team was the best one Havre de Grace has had in the last three years. J.V. Soccer ended its season with 2 wins, 2 ties, and 8 losses.

The Warrior defense demolishes a running back.

Our 1982 Varsity Football Team churned up a winning season for the second season in a row, finishing with an 8-2 record. Contributing to the Warrior's success was an outstanding defense, led by juniors: Archie Miller, Al Casey, Manny Stansbury, Jeff Riley, and Wesley Sale. These juniors and many more will be leading the offense and defense next year as seniors. Leading the offense this year were seniors Novelle Jackson and Tracey Donaldson. Head Coach Shawn Baker was sad to see these seniors go. Mr. Baker feels there will be more than enough seniors next year to fill spots lost this year. The team and Mr. Baker thank coaches Jon Andes, Jerry Lee, David Bowman, and Perry Castelli for their help and dedication. They also thank Dr. Dubel and the administration for being so supportive of the football program in so many ways.

Mr. Baker watches his team in dismay.

This year's J.V. Football team had it's most successful season in many years. The team won 3 games out of 9. They beat Perryville in the fourth quarter by a field goal, North Harford, and they defeated the only team that almost had gone undefeated—Joppatowne. The team had great group spirit and really played together as a unit throughout the whole year. The team basically consisted of first-year players who surprised everyone with their wins. There were some returning sophomores on the team who actually led the team as players and captains.

C. McIntyre gives the ball a whack.

Coach Turowski has a fit of excitement.

Our 1982 Field Hockey Girls Varsity team had a half and half season with six wins and six losses. Seniors Kathryn Branch, Luann Kern, Michele Rimel, Christa McIntyre, Terri Foley, Felizitas Henemyre, Tamara Vaughn, and Lynn Whited each turned in commendable or superior performances. Team members supported one another loyally. At the state playoffs in Wilde Lake they played an extremely good game going into a 10-minute overtime and finally losing, 4-2. One of the highlights of the year was the Parent Recognition Night held before the Fallston game. The girls presented their parents and coaches Turowski and Weber with flowers.

J. Holloway looks to be in need of some help.

M. Rimel runs down any flying ball.

T. Prior hits a nice lead pass.

Our 1982 J.V. Field Hockey Team was led this year by many talented freshmen. Coach Donna Weber was very pleased with their 2-7-3 season. With the talented freshmen and returning sophomores leading the team, with work, the team could prove to be a very strong varsity team within the next three years. Freshmen new to the game are usually open for improvement and Coach Weber expects the players to really grow next year. Despite their somewhat losing season, the team is expected to do very well next season. Next to talent was outstanding team spirit. They played as a team very well but unfortunately did not win more games.

T. Prior tries to hit the ball without being hit.

C. Spicer sets up to shoot on the goal.

BOYS' VOLLEYBALL

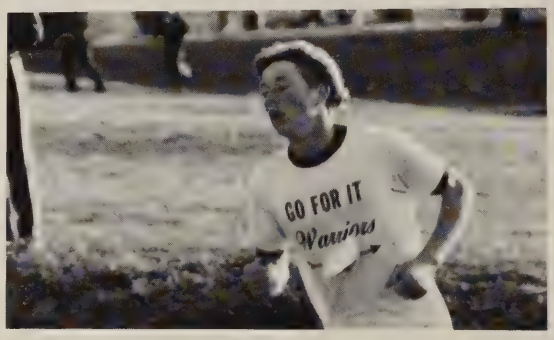
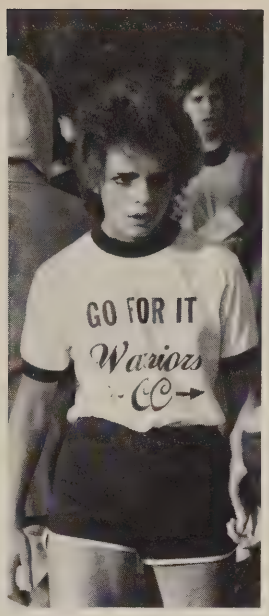
BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY



The Boys' Cross Country team had a very productive season. With very few Seniors, Coach Rudolph expects the underclassmen to gain strength and experience which should set the stage for a superb future. Led by Captains Ray Stone (Junior) and Kevin Strahan (Sophomore), the Warriors placed second in the districts and fifth in the state.

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY



Seated left to right: T. Blansfield, M. Chidsey, C. Harvey kneeling left to right: (Coach) Schrock, D. Christy, D. Little, K. Harvey, E. Sampson (mgr.), S. Lehnert (mgr.), Coach Rodolph

Once again the Girls' Cross Country team captured the district championship. This was an outstanding achievement including the fact that some of their best runners were injured. With many disappointments and injuries the Warrior girls held their own and fought hard to the end. Captains Jackie Harvey, Linda Southhall and Maryanne Chidsey (Seniors) were unable to run due to injuries received during preseason practices. "We are looking forward to a strong successful season in the future," said Coach Roldulph.

This year's fall cheerleaders consisted of two squads, A and B. Seniors Captain Stephanie Vaughn and Co-Captain Lisa Ferrara and sophomores April Allen, Sheila Hudler, Mary Ann Lisanti, Rhonda Ray, and Stefanie Robinson were all members of squad A.

Squad B consisted of junior Captain Dee Dee Minor, Co-Captain Becci Nori, Beth Davison, Kellie Gomez, Dawn Kilby, and sophomores Kim Angelucci, Debbie Dudding, and Charlene Wilson. Ms. Diane Ruckman has coached H.H.S. cheerleaders since 1976 and deserves much recognition for her dedication.

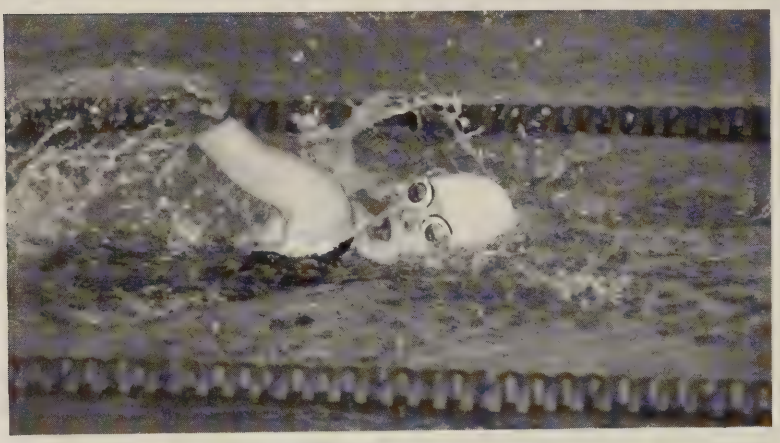
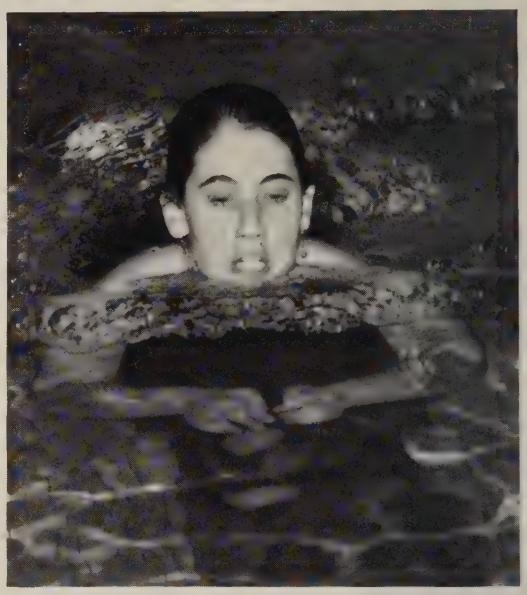
WARRIORS' SWIM TEAM

Each year individuals on the Warrior Swim team improve by capturing new times and bettering old records. Record holders and finalists for the 1983 HHS "bubblers" were Karen Grigoleit, LuAnn Kern, Scott May, Barbara Mitchell, Derrick Rennix, Derralyn Rennix, Gary Testerman, Jim Thompson, and Eddie Walter.





The small size of this year's Warrior Swim team made competing against other teams difficult. The team placed 2nd four times and 3rd five times in nine meets throughout the season. Under the leadership of captains Barbie Mitchell (Girls) and Derrick Rennix (Boys), the best events were the 400 free. The girl's relay consisted of K. Grigoleit, L. Kern, D. Rennix, and B. Mitchell; their time was 4:33. The boy's relay consisted of J. Thompson, G. Testerman, E. Walter, and D. Rennix. Coach Odachowski and Coach Dunstan commented about the team, "Supercalifragilisticexpealidocious!!"

We are proud to present this book to you.
The work of the Yearbook staff all the year through.
We've had problems—and they weren't few
But then—that's nothing new.

We've worked together to meet deadlines.
Put in extra efforts many times.
When asked to help one occasionally heard a whine,
But all in all the book turned out fine!

To those who have helped we extend our deepest thanks.
You've provided ideas and put up with our pranks—
You truly rate in the highest of ranks.
So again we say—Many Thanks!!
